

ART STUDY IN FRANCE

June 22-July 14, 2017

In this program, students develop skills in working with text and image, as well as various modes of inquiry such as problem-posing, conceptualizing, and critical-thinking. This course will also focus on the cultural, social, and technological aspects of art and design along with the role of the cultural producer in raising awareness and fostering collective action. No previous art experience is required.
